

PUSHBACK

Stories of Resistance

A film series on organizing and political action.

Mitchell Library

37 Harrison Street New Haven CT

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 11

2:00 P.M.

Never Turn Back -The Story of Fannie Lou Hamer and excerpts from Eyes on the Prize, The Story of the Civil Rights Movement

Fannie Lou Hamer, who led voter registration drives in Mississippi, was the co-chair of the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party that challenged the legitimacy of the all-white Mississippi delegation at the 1964 Democratic convention.

SATURDAY, MARCH 11

2:00 P.M.

Feminist Stories of Women's Liberation and excerpts from She's Beautiful When She's Angry.

The history told by participants of the women's movement in the U.S., 1963-1970.

SATURDAY, APRIL 22

2:00 P.M.

Bread and Roses

A drama about the efforts of immigrant janitorial workers in Los Angeles to gain better wages and working conditions, based on the Justice for Janitors campaign of the Service Employees International Union (SEIU).

Many of us are looking for ways to oppose bigotry, hatred and injustice. This film series is based on the belief that the history of movements for social change can inspire us. After each showing there will be an opportunity to discuss the films. Series organized and moderated by Amy Kesselman and Ann Froines, retired professors of Women's/ Gender Studies.